FROM THE PERSONAL DIARY OF DETECTIVE SECOND CLASS, ELISA MAZA, N.Y.P.D.:

My new "SISTER" was BORN today...

...The product of another forbidden foray into genetic manipulation by Xanatos and his twisted physicists. Demona managed to get blood samples from me and Goliath, and from them the demented Dr. Phobos created a HUMAN/GARGOYLE HYBRID.

Phobos had crafted many weird creations for Xanatos and it was because of his latest project, the MEDUSA DEVICE, that the GARGOYLES and I had invaded their man-made island laboratory.

Because the paranoid Phobos thought Xanatos had it in for him, he found security in his latest genetic concoction, VENUS. Her prime directive: to protect her creator at all costs!

YES, MY DEAR, YOU WILL SAFEGUARD ME FROM XANATOS IF NEED BE... AND KILL THE GARGOYLES!

We had our hands full at the time and didn't know of...

So that was the end of GEN-U-TECH Island and the end of the MEDUSA PROJECT.

FSSSSSHHHHHHH

Though Venus was GONE all the questions she raised AREN'T. She was part ME and part GOLIATH and she affected BOTH of us.

She made me think about Goliath and me... What our relationship IS and ISN'T and it SCARED me. I must admit I felt JEALOUS and I'm not PROUD of those feelings.

Xanatos had one less weapon to use in his MAD campaign for domination, but two had paid the ULTIMATE price for it.

I PRAY that she's at PEACE wherever she is... I only know that I won't be at peace with myself for SOME time.

END OF DIARY ENTRY.

Dear GARGOYLES,

Three cheers for Amanda Conner! Until I picked up my daughter's copy of GARGOYLES, I had never heard the name before. We (my daughter and I) are predominantly the super hero types, which means we collect all X-MEN and other related comics, but we have, on occasion, branched off into other areas. Because we liked the GARGOYLES movie and enjoy the cartoon, we took a chance with GARGOYLES and we absolutely loved them.

While putting some books together to take to the New York Comics Convention, we noticed that Amanda was on the list of artists to be there and my daughter insisted we take our GARGOYLES to be signed. I have never been so impressed with anyone as much as Amanda. I was surprised and pleased to see that she could produce super heroes with the best of pencillers, but most impressive was the exceptionally personable manner with my ten-year-old daughter. She went beyond nice to make a fan feel special.

My daughter did not stop talking about Amanda all the way home and the fact that we met other very popular artists did not seem to matter. Amanda won the day and I would personally like to see more of her work in the future. I believe Marvel has found a piece of the magic puzzle that makes the comic business so special.

Thank you to Amanda for being special and be assured that we are just two of what I am certain will be her many fans. Watch out Jim Lee, here comes Amanda.

Vincent A. Tannone
Tiffany Jade Tannone
Lake Peekskill, NY

Sure, we might be biased, but we totally agree with you about Amanda. She is one of the top talents in the industry (and the best-kept secret in comics, but that'll change) and one of the nicest people you could meet in comics!

Dear GARGOYLES and Company,

Congratulations on your work. My favorite character is Demona. You should definitely show more of her in the future. Xanatos is a good villain. I like how he's subtle and outwardly polite, even to Elisa and the other Gargoyles. That's more like a real-life villain than the ones in most comics who have no sense of tact or diplomacy. Elisa was also a surprise. When I heard she was going to be the Gargoyles' "human friend", I was, like, "Oh, no! Not another cheesy April O'Neil-type girl!", but she proved herself pretty well. I like how she kicked butt on those soldiers in GARGOYLES #4. The Pack is definitely hip, with cool characters like Wolf and Hyena. This group should have their own comic series!

Chris Trent
E. Hampton, NY

Demona is one of our favorite characters, too! Hope you enjoyed her appearance this issue, expect to see LOTS more of her in future issues. New writer Mort Todd has some devilish plans for her to pull on Goliath and Elisa very soon! And don't miss the "Pack Attack" coming in issues #7 and #8!

Dear Written in Stone,

When my boyfriend told me there was a GARGOYLES comic I went spastic! I ran right out and bought the first issue. I think the art is spectacular. Oh, drool, da-rool! Those who believe comics are for kids obviously don't read GARGOYLES or X-MEN. I also love how you guys answer all of the letters you print. You should keep the letters at two pages for keeps. I love reading the letters. As for my favorite Gargoyle, it's a toss up between Lexington and Brooklyn. You guys do a great job with their characters. Minus the 1000 years they were frozen, how old are the Gargoyles? Keep up the awesome work!

Wendy Fay, age 18
Auburn, MA

Gargoyles live to be hundreds of years old, but Brooklyn, Lex and Broadway are still in their "teen" years. Goliath is a bit older, and as you can tell, Hudson is a bit more mature. As for Bronx, he's still a pup! Wait'll you see him full-grown!

Dear GARGOYLES,

I'm a huge fan of Disney cartoons and just about every form of animation. I am 20-years-old and will proudly state, "I love your comic!" They convinced me to first rent and then buy the Gargoyles movie on video. I enjoy that your comic seems to follow the Gargoyles animated series. I say "seems" because I've yet to see an episode of the great new Disney adventure. When did it start? What channel might it be on? Disney? The Cartoon Network? I've got to know! Thank you so very, very much for your comic!

Ryan A. May, age 20
Hobe Sound, FL

The animated TV series, Gargoyles, premiered in Fall 1995 and currently shows on Fridays as part of The Disney Afternoon (Aladdin, Goof Troop, Darkwing Duck, etc.). The good news for Gargoyle fans is that starting next fall, the show will be on four days a week! We've had the chance to read the story synopses for next season and all we can say is ... WOW! Not only will you be thrilled by what's in store for you, but it will answer many of the questions that you fans have been asking!

Dear Written in Stone,

When I happened upon the Gargoyles TV show, I was excited. When I got the movie, I was thrilled. When I got the comic, I fell in love! The artwork is great! You guys should be commended! I just got GARGOYLES #2 and it was just as good, if not better, than #1. One thing confused me. On the TV show, Elisa has a brother, Derek. In the comic book she has a sis. What happened? Other than that, I think your work and this comic book are absolutely fabulous! Keep up the good work!

Rachel S. Hochberg, age 12
Easton, PA

Although she hasn't appeared on the TV show yet (she's been going to school in Arizona, after all), Elisa's sister, Beth, will be on the show next season. And wait until you see the changes Derek goes through on the new shows with David Xanatos!

Dear Written in Stone,

I love the Gargoyles TV show and I love your issues from Marvel. I like how the illustrations express the feelings of the characters, thanks to the gifted talent of Amanda Conner. I like the colors, too. Greg Wright must have worked his butt off trying to color it so perfectly.

My favorite characters in the TV series and comic are the mighty Goliath, the fierce warrior (and TV junkie) Hudson, the 20th Century fad-crazed Brooklyn, food-loving and bulky Broadway, 20th Century techno-wonder Lexington, the lovely human detective Elisa Maza and my real favorite, the cute Bronx.

Nakia C. Ann Degale, age 15
Ville Lasalle, Quebec, Canada

It sounds like ALL the Gargoyles (and Elisa) are your favorite characters, Nakia, and we can't blame you! We also have a soft spot for Bronx and are planning to do a special Bronx solo story in a future issue!
